JAPANESE FLEET RECEIVES KNOCKOUT BLOW FROM ALLIED CARRIER PLANES

Japs Say Allied Assault Entering "Decisive Stage"

Tokyo Urges U. S. To Adopt a More Lenient Attitude

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25 (AP)—
The Japanese declared today that the "audacious" attacks by Allied warships signalled the opening of a "gigantic offensive" against the home islands which "has now entered upon its most decisive stage."

One Japanese broadcast recorded by the Associated Press in New York speculated that the first landings might come in Chiba prefecture, whose plain stretches from Tokyo bay east ward to the sea.

The skies over the prefecture, said
the Tokyo radio, had been "converted into a hurly-burly thoroughfare
for Superfortresses, Liberators and Mustang fighters" with air raid sirens
howling every day since late June.

It declared that even farmers in the fields and small fishing boats at sea were being chased by machine-gunning Mustangs.

Workers Rush Coast Defenses
A Tokyo radio correspondent,
back from watching workers rushing
coastal defenses, declared the Japanese people should expect that "all the cities and villages would be virtually burned down and all the transportation network practically
cut off" but should still keep faith
in the fortifications.

"And if the enemy should refrain from landing in fear of the Japanese defense system and continue solely to tighten the blockade, we shall wait twenty, thirty years and beyond."

Broadcasts heard here by the Federal Communications Commission were preoccupied with the repeated sea and air attacks, Japan's deteriorating military position, and
the specter of invasion.
Radio Tokyo tonight urged the United States to adopt a more lenient attitude toward Japan with regard to peace.

"Should America show any symphony of putting into practice what she preaches, as for instance in the Atlantic Charter, excepting its punitive clause, the Japanese nation, in fact the Japanese military, would automatically, if not willingly, (several words missing) follow in the stopping of the conflict and then
and then only sabers cease to rattle both in the East and in the West," said the broadcast.

"Official Publicists" Cited
There are no problems between a "liberal America" and Japan, said
the broadcast, recorded by the Federal Communications Commission.
"A liberal America has never given occasion for Japanese militarists to rise, but America now talks of unconditional surrender for Japan."

"Though its official quarters keep relative silence, its official publicists declare that Japan should be striped
of its rights, or that."

"In short, they intend to mete out such a hard retribution that the Japanese people are more determined than ever to unite and resist as a united mass of 100,000,000
souls and will so continue as long as American minds remain dictatorial
and oppressive."

Maryland Motorists
Will Keep Old Tags
BALTIMORE, July 25 (AP)—Maryland motorists will retain their present automobile tags in 1946 because materials and machinery are unavailable to make new license plates, W. Lee Elgin, commissioner of motor vehicles, said today.

The permanent registration system authorized at the last session of the legislature can not be put into effect in 1946, Elgin said, because state officials at the penitentiary, where the plates are made,
said it was impossible to get the proper kind of metal, paint and machines to make permanent plates.

"Accordingly, we have ordered manufacture of new clips for next year be started immediately," he said.

Inexhaustible Chinese Manpower
Is Whittling Down Jap Strength

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst
The strategic pattern of the major offensive in China forecast for weeks from Chungking, is becoming clearer every day.

It is based on attrition, with inexhaustible Chinese manpower whittling down Japanese strength without risking a decisive engagement
until the foe is sufficiently weakened to make the outcome certain.

Chinese pressure from the west is steadily narrowing the Japanese corridor linking the Yangtze and the north with Canton and Hong Kong
in the south.

The most determined enemy resistance to the Chinese squeeze continues to be on the western face of the Hankow-Changsha sector of the corridor. Little progress has been

76,652 Tons of Bombs Were Rained on Berlin

LONDON, July 25 (AP)— Berlin, the most bombed city in the world, was on the receiving end of 76,652 tons of bombs, it was announced today.

Of these, the RAF dropped 50,960 tons and the American air force, in nineteen major daylight attacks, added another 25,692.

Essen was listed as the second most bombed city with 36,420
tons, followed by Cologne, 34,711, Duisburg, 30,025, Hamburg, 22-
580, Kiel, 16,712 and Nuernberg
13,021.

Pacts Question
Causes Spirited
Senate Debate

Treaty-or-Agreement Poser Marks Charter Consideration

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—
Powerful support developed in the Senate today for the argument that United Nations pacts assigning American troops to keep the peace
will be treated subject to two thirds approval of the Senate.

Another group of senators, fearing that this might spell defeat of the pacts to be submitted long after the basic United Nations Charter is ratified, hotly argued that the documents will be agreements requiring only majority approval by Senate and House.

Sen. Wheeler (D-Mont.), a critic of the United Nations Charter, took the position yesterday that the later
pacts will be treaties. Sen. Connally (D-Tex.), one of the foremost supporters of the charter, said today
that in his view, they will be treaties. The same position was taken by Sen. White (R-Me.) and Taft (R-Ohio).

Lucas Disagrees with Wheeler
The question of these pacts, which will determine how many American troops will be assigned to the peacekeeping role and where they will serve, came up during debate on the basic charter.

Disagreeing sharply with the Wheeler view, Sen. Lucas (D-Ill.)
referred to the failure of the old League of Nations to gain two-thirds approval of the Senate.

"I want to take my chances with Congress, not with one third of the United States Senate for I've seen
what has happened here before,"
Lucas said.

Majority Leader Barkley, of Kentucky, sided with Lucas, and he warned against anyone "lying in ambush to nullify our solemn agreement" when the implementing legislation comes up.

Wheeler took this personally and retorted that he didn't think "anyone is lying in ambush."

Vandenberg Enters Debate
He referred again to John Foster
Dulles, chief adviser to the American delegation at San Francisco,
who testified at the Senate committee hearings he thought the later agreements would be treaties. Sen.
Vandenberg (R-Mich.) jumped into the debate, observing there had been a good deal of discussion about what Dulles meant so he took the
"unique" course of calling him today
"find out."

"The sole question presented to him was the choice between a treaty
on the one hand and a presidential executive order on the other. It is Mr. Dulles's view that these agreements should be made by treaty but he wishes me to say for him that he never passed on the question of whether there may not be an alternative choice between a treaty and a joint resolution of Congress."

Within the last few days the pattern of American Fourteenth army
force bombing operations in support of Chinese troops has begun to widen, indicating a developing coordinated Sino-American strategic design.

Fourteenth air force plans have been ranging almost the whole

road and its southern extensions
from Honan province to the region

Observers Agree British Election Should Be Close

Churchill and Attlee Re- turn to London for Bal- lot Counting

LONDON, July 25 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill and Clement R.
Attlee returned to London tonight
from the interrupted Big Three conference at Potsdam to be on hand
for tomorrow's counting of the general election ballots determining which will be Britain's leader and chief spokesman in world affairs.

As the Conservative and Labor party standard bearers returned, excitement spread through Britain in anticipation of the count which will decide leadership of the nation's first
"Peace in Europe" government.

Ballots were cast July 5 in 640
parliamentary districts.

Most observers agreed the result would be close. Practically all conceded that labor would gain and the overall result would show a definite leftist trend.

Churchill was the first to fly in from Potsdam. A crowd was waiting at the entrance to his office at 10 Downing street as he arrived. Tonight he had an audience with the king at Buckingham palace and gave him a personal account of progress made at Potsdam. Tomorrow, with the ministers of his interior "caretaker" government gathered around him, he will receive election returns.

Attlee planned a brief visit to his Limehouse constituency headquarters in London.

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden,
No. 2 man among the conservatives,
also returned from Potsdam.

The verdict for which these men
waited was Britain's first general election in more than ten years. Churchill's conservatives campaign on a "free enterprise" platform. Attlee's Labor party campaign for nationalization of fuel
and power, inland transport, iron and steel industries and the Bank of England.

The early counting of votes starts at 4 a. m. EWT, tomorrow and final results are expected within about eight hours.

Kenney Predicts
Little Opposition
On Jap Beaches

MANILA, July 25 (AP)—Invasion
of Japan will meet almost no opposition on the beaches, Gen. George C. Kenney, commander of the Far East air forces, predicted today in announcing that American airmen
are about ready to smack Japan
with 5,000-ton bombing raids.

"I'm conservative when I say we could hit them with 5,000 tons in a single attack, something the whole world never dreamed of," said the veteran commander whose armada
includes the Fifth, Seventh and Thirteenth air forces.

"We'll have enough stuff so that the Japs won't have a bridge or a sizeable road that will help them for the future operations. They'll be completely immobilized as regards any mass movement."

"I can't expect that when we go ashore anywhere we want,
we'll find almost a total lack of opposition in the beaches, the same as we've found it all through New Guinea and the Philippines."

More than 5,000 planes soon will be available for aerial leveling of Nippon's defenses and factories,
said the aggressive officer, who was
Gen. MacArthur's air commander in the American drive from New Guinea to the Philippines.

"There's no place in the entire Japanese empire that can't be reached by Allied power, and there's nothing out of bounds for American airmen," Kenney declared.

"And that goes for the emperor's palace as far as I'm concerned."

Michigan Prison
Warden Is Suspended

Lansing, Mich., July 25 (AP)—The Michigan Corrections Commission
tonight suspended Warden Harry H.
Jackson, of the state prison of Southern Michigan, and six high-ranking prison officials and instructed Garrett Heyns, state corrections director, to assume immediate control of the prison.

The corrections commission, in a formal statement, said the suspended officials would be given an early hearing on charges
made against them by Attorney General John R. Dethmers that the prison was rife with immorality,
domination by big shot criminals,
sabotaging and maladministration.

Petain Is Accused of Congratulating Hitler on British Defeat at Dieppe

By RYLAND MORIN
PARIS, July 25 (AP)—Aged Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, his face
like a mask, bluntly refused to let graphers who transmitted the messages would be called to testify against Petain.

Later, during the cross-examination of Lebrun, Petain spoke in his own defense. After the resignation of Premier Paul Reynaud on June 16, 1940, Lebrun said, he asked Petain to form a new government. The marshal, Lebrun said, instantly showed him a list and said: "Here's my government."

Lebrun said he was astonished. It usually took three or four days to form a cabinet in France, he said.
Springing to his feet a juror cried:
"I now feel we have come to the heart of this trial—to the core of accusations of a plot against the republic."

Several Lists, Petain Says
He demanded to know from Petain when the list of the marshal withdrew from his pocket was prepared. The implication in the jur-or's question was that Petain had completed plans for a new government of France well before Reynaud resigned under pressure.

Every eye in the courtroom was riveted on Petain's face. He sat still, apparently unhearing. Judge Mongibeaux called on him to rise.
He still sat. A policeman touched him. His lawyers then explained what the question was. Scowling, Petain replied in a frosty voice:
"That list—well, I had considered
some names, but the list I took from my pocket was not the one that came into effect. There were several lists."

The juror said the marshal had not answered the question, but Mongibeaux did not press the point,
despite an outbreak of mumbling
through the court.

GEN. MALIN CRAIG
SUCCEEDS AT 69
WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Gen.
Malin Craig, former army chief of staff and head of a War department board which has passed on all general officer promotions in the present war, died today.

Craig, 69, succumbed in Walter Reed General Hospital where he had been under treatment since suffering a heart attack a year ago.
"As a price of Russian nonintervention, the Japanese offered to withdraw from Manchuria in favor
of Moscow. Moreover, they offered
to recognize the principle of independence" of Indo-China, Burma
and the Philippines and to submit
to American occupation of Korea
and even Formosa on one condition
—that the Japanese home islands
should remain free of American
invasion and occupation.

The magazine says also, without giving the source of the information,
that Wladimir Bagge, retiring Swedish minister to Japan, transmitted to the United States early last May a "Japanese request for clarification
of the American 'unconditional surrender' formula."

The article says in part:
"As a price of Russian noninter-
vention, the Japanese offered to
withdraw from Manchuria in favor
of Moscow. Moreover, they offered
to recognize the principle of in-
dependence" of Indo-China, Burma
and the Philippines and to submit
to American occupation of Korea
and even Formosa on one condition
—that the Japanese home islands
should remain free of American
invasion and occupation."

It will be up to President Truman and to his closest advisers now in Potsdam to decide whether the Japanese offer to Russia falls within the American interpretation of "unconditional surrender."

Chinese Troops Approaching Jap Puppet Capital

Chiang's Forces Enter Walled Stronghold of Yangso

By SPENCER MOOSA
CHUNGKING, July 25 (AP)— Chinese troops have captured a town forty-eight miles from Nanking, Japanese puppet capital of China, and have broken into the streets of the walled stronghold of Yangso, a former auxiliary American air base in South China. Chinese reports said tonight.

The Chinese threat to Nanking, nerve center of Japanese military and political control in China, coincided with reports of a new clash
between Chinese Communist troops
and government forces of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek 430 miles northwest of Chungking.

Government quarters minimized
the incident, but Communist newspapers in Chungking charged the government had started "civil war."

Chinese Take Hanshan
Front dispatches from the Yangtze river battlefield claimed that Gen. Chiang's fighting forces captured the highway center of Han-shan, forty-eight miles southwest of Nanking, on July 19 and subsequently repulsed a Japanese counterattack from Holsien, fifteen miles west of Hanshan.

There was no indication of the strength of Chinese forces at Han-shan. It appeared, however, that the Chinese might be attempting to reach the Yangtze, twenty miles distant, in an effort to disrupt river traffic between Nanking and the Chinese interior.

Other press dispatches told of a constant movement of Japanese troops down the Yangtze at night
from Hankow to Nanking and Shanghai.

Four hundred miles southeast of Chungking, Chinese veterans sweeping toward the Kwangsi province
capital of Kweilin from the south crashed through the south gate of Yangso yesterday, and today were locked in a swaying street battle with the Japanese garrison, the Chinese high command said.

Mustangs Aid Chinese
Supporting Chinese troops fighting for possession of the air base
at Shaoyang, 145 miles northeast of Kweilin, United States Mustang fighter-bombers hit enemy troop positions there and ranged eastward to Kweilin province, where their fire-bombing enemy compounds
near the Chinese-held air base of Suchwan.

Twelve miles northeast of Suchwan, Chinese ground forces repelled a heavy Japanese counter-attack which tried to disperse
Chinese soldiers attempting to halt
an enemy withdrawal toward the Yangtze port of Nanchang, headquarters said.

Offer from Japs

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—An-

will be available for rationing in August, the same as in July.

The August quota of 386,862
smaller truck tires also is unchanged
from July. But the quota for truck tires size 8.25 and larger is being reduced from 234,308 to 200,000.

Announcing the August quotas to-servational aid, including recapping,

if no new tires are in sight for them.

Warlike Deterioration of Civilian
Clothing Quality Has OPA Stumped

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—It
has had some success in curbing
so-called "fancying-up" of garments
so that higher prices could be charged. Officials said that regulations requiring the elimination of
price-boosting trills have begun to
show results.

For example, an official said,
a leather belt on a dress could hike the price considerably. Substitution of a fabric belt might keep
the garment in the low-price range.

The agency contends, however,
that so far various cost-cutting
measures have had no effect whatsoever in the government campaign
to roll back over-all clothing costs.
Retail prices for clothing have
risen twelve per cent in the last twenty-two months and OPA sees
this climb as one of the greatest
inflationary dangers.

Russia Submits
Initial Request
For UNRRA Help

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—
UNRRA has received its first request for assistance from Russia—$700,000,000 worth.

This was disclosed today by UNRRA Deputy Director Roy F.
Hendrickson at a news conference
at which he also said that getting supplies and means of distributing
them is a "very difficult problem indeed."

Hendrickson, who is acting director of the United Nations Relief
and Rehabilitation Administration
while Herbert H. Lehman is in Europe, announced that:

1.—Total contributions to UNRRA
so far authorized by participating governments is $1,882,788,348, of which the United States authorized $1,350,000,000.

2.—A total of 1,304,298 long tons
of supplies valued at $296,563,000
have been furnished through June 30 to seven occupied countries—
Greece, Italy, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, China, Albania
—and UNRRA camps. Western hemisphere sources supplied 1,069-639 tons valued at $223,039,000.

Hendrickson said the Russian request was received yesterday. It did not specify what was needed
or over how long a period, but said
detailed needs would be outlined later. It merely said the amount was needed for relief and rehabilitation.

The deputy said the request—
submitted by Russia's alternate delegate here on the UNRRA council, Vlas Andreevich Klementsov, — will be handled in the routine way and referred to a committee for examination of the Soviet government's ability to pay.

Russia, being an invaded country,
was not called upon to contribute to UNRRA operations, but only to donate toward its administrative expense. Its allocation for 1944 exceeded $1,000,000. UNRRA records show $200,000 paid and a balance of $800,000 in process of transfer as of last June 30.

He said China had asked around $945,000,000 over an eighteen-month period and Poland is asking between $600,000,000 and $700,000,000.

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—It
has had some success in curbing
so-called "fancying-up" of garments
so that higher prices could be
charged. Officials said that regulations requiring the elimination of
price-boosting trills have begun to
show results.

For example, an official said,
a leather belt on a dress could
hike the price considerably. Sub-
stitution of a fabric belt might keep
the garment in the low-price range.

The agency contends, however,
that so far various cost-cutting
measures have had no effect what-
soever in the government campaign
to roll back over-all clothing costs.
Retail prices for clothing have
risen twelve per cent in the last
twenty-two months and OPA sees
this climb as one of the greatest
inflationary dangers.

20 Nip Warships Damaged by U. S., British Airmen In Great Strike

Escort Carrier Probably Sunk; 209 Planes and 32 Merchant Ships Destroyed or Damaged

By MURLIN SPENCER
GUAM, Thursday, July 26 (AP)—
Twenty Japanese warships, including three battleships, six aircraft carriers and five cruisers, were damaged by American and British carrier pilots in Adm. Halsey's great 1,200-plane strike against inland sea bases Tuesday.

One of the ships, an escort aircraft carrier, probably was sunk
by British pilots, who also damaged
an old destroyer, Adm. Nimitz reported in today's communique.

Yank fliers damaged the other eighteen warships at the great Kure
naval base.

American and British pilots destroyed or damaged 170 Japanese aircraft and added thirty-nine more yesterday morning for a total of 209. Nineteen enemy planes were shot out of the air, the remainder caught on the ground.

British and Yank fliers also sank
or damaged thirty-two Japanese merchant ships and damaged fifty-
three small craft.

All of Nimitz's figures, except the thirty-nine aircraft wrecked yesterday, were for Tuesday's attack
which wrought destruction and damage along a 325-mile sweep of Southern Japan and centered on shipping in the inland sea.

B-29s Hit Oil Refineries
Joining in the concentrated blasting of the enemy homeland, nearly 100 Superfortresses attacked oil refineries south of Tokyo last midnight. This twelfth B-29 attack on Japan's vital fuel centers followed by less than thirty-six hours a 625-plane B-29
raid on the Osaka-Nagoya area.

Veteran Pension Regulations Are Clarified by VA

Rates and Conditions Are Explained by Baltimore Office Manager

Pension may be paid for World War II active service disability according to the degree of disability shown, W. L. Limburg, manager of the Baltimore regional office of the Veterans Administration, stated in a release designed to clarify pension entitlements.

The rates of pensions payable to World War II veterans range from $11.50 a month for a disability of a degree of 10 per cent to $115 a month for a total disability. Where certain specific disabilities, such as the loss of the use of both hands, or blindness in both eyes, or certain combinations of disabilities exist, the amount payable is larger and may be as high as $265.

The rates from $11.50 to $115 a month are based upon the degree of disability assigned in the individual case, correlated, as far as can be determined, with average results from specific injuries, disease, or combination thereof. Pension is not payable if the disability is the result of the veterans' own willful misconduct. A discharge or release from active service under conditions other than dishonorable is a prerequisite to entitlement.

Women's Branches Scheduled
"Service in World War II for pension purposes includes active service of officers and enlisted personnel in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, on or after December 7, 1941, and before the termination of hostilities incident to the present war as determined by the proclamation of the President or by concurrent resolution of the Congress. Service as a cadet at the United States Military Academy, or as a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy or Marine Corps, or as a cadet at the United States Coast Guard Academy, during the period specified is considered active military or naval service in World War II for the purpose of laws administered by the Veterans Administration."

The Women's Army Corps and the Women's Reserves of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, are parts of the respective branches of the service and pension rights attach to active service therein. It may be stated here that service connected pension payable to World War II veteran is subject to a reduction of $20 a month when he has neither wife, child, nor dependent parent, and is in receipt of hospital treatment, institutional domiciliary care by the United States or any political subdivision thereof. Original application for pension disability incurred in or aggravated by service in the armed forces should be made in Veterans Administration Form 526.

Death pension is payable to the widow, child or children, and dependent parents of a veteran who died as a result of injury or disease incurred in or aggravated by active military or naval service, in line of duty and not the result of his own willful misconduct, during an enlistment entered into on or after December 7, 1941, and before the termination of hostilities incident to the present war as determined by proclamation of the President or by concurrent resolution of the Congress. If discharged or released from active service, the veteran's discharge or release must have been under conditions other than dishonorable.

Dependents' Rates Given
"Dependents of persons who served in the armed forces during World War II (including women who serve in the Women's Army Corps or in the Women's Reserve of the Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard, and who die as the result of a disease or injury incurred in or aggravated by such service are entitled to pension at the following monthly rates:

"Widow not child, $60; widow and one child, $65 (with $13 for each additional child); widow but one child, $25; widow but two children, $39 (equally divided) with $10 for each additional child; total amount to be equally divided; dependent mother or father, $45 (or both) $25 each; as the widow, child or children, the total amount shall not exceed $100.

"World War II veterans are entitled to non-service pension benefits. Any person who served in the active military or naval service (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard) for a period of ninety days or more, extending into or commencing in World War II, and was discharged or released from active service under conditions other than dishonorable or who having served less than ninety days was discharged for disability incurred in or aggravated by service in the line of duty, who is shown to have been in active service therein before the cessation of hostilities shall be entitled to receive a pension for permanent total disability not the result of his own willful misconduct or vicious habits and which is not shown to have been incurred in any period of military or naval service. This pension is not payable if the annual income of the veteran exceeds $1,000 where he is unmarried or if it exceeds $2,500 where he is married or has minor children. The amount of this pension is $50 a month except that where such veterans shall have been rated permanent and total in receipt of pension for a continuous period of ten years, or reached the age of sixty-five years, the amount shall be $60 monthly.

Further information relative to veterans' benefits may be obtained from the Veterans Administration Branch Office, Contact Unit, Room 1, Post Office Building, Cumberland, Maryland.

Co-operatives Ask Council To Retain Present Tax Form

By RENE CAPPON
BALTIMORE, July 25. (AP)—Representatives of Maryland co-operatives pleaded today with the Legislative council to change the present form of taxing their businesses, while a group of merchants argued for increased income taxes for co-operative corporations.

The council, holding a morning and afternoon session on the subject of the taxation of the state's thirty odd co-operatives, heard Frank Forestell, of the council's office, declare that the income tax on the $20,000,000 represented by Maryland co-operatives netted the state only about $1,500.

Karl Loos, of the National Council of Farmers Producers Co-operatives, said the co-operatives in Maryland received no tax exemptions and wanted none. However, he told the legislators, the policy of not taxing the patronage refund—division of co-operatives' profits among its patrons—should be continued, since it did not fall within the category of corporate income.

A. W. Carpenter, of Sherburn, N. Y., principal speaker for the business group, said co-operatives had grown from the simple activities of marketing and purchasing farmers' supplies into vast, virtually tax-free concerns.

He said patronage refunds did not differ materially from the profit of ordinary corporations, but since the co-operative's "margin" was not taxed, the corporations, and particularly the small business man, were put at a severe competitive disadvantage.

"The right of co-operatives to grow cannot be questioned," he added, "but when they invade business fields and become competitors, they should be willing to operate under the same set of business rules and pay taxes as do other businesses."

20 Nip Warships

further reports from yesterday's raids, there still was no indication that the fleet had pulled back from Japanese waters.

There were no reports of American losses, Nimitz said, but the British lost eight planes and twelve pilots, and air crewmen in their attacks, which were in the East Shikoku-Okyama-Fukuyama area.

Nips May Have One Carrier
It is difficult to attempt to assess the size of the Japanese fleet which could be used against the Allies at present. Their converted Ise and Hyuga battleships are both out of commission. Still afloat but heavily damaged at Yokosuka naval base a few days ago is the battleship Nagato. Reports on June 29 said the Japanese had two other old battleships, but the Haruna, now slightly damaged, may have been included in those two.

It is believed their aircraft carrier force virtually is out of commission. As of June 29, they were reported to have two or three large carriers and today's report lists two damaged, leaving the enemy possibly one.

Their cruiser force has been whittled down over a period of time. Five cruisers, three of them heavies, were damaged Tuesday. They had about thirty destroyers and four of these were damaged.

Reports of Japanese defenses against these great strikes are meager but nineteen of their aircraft were shot down—sixteen over target and three in attempts to attack the Third fleet.

There was no report of anti-aircraft fire from the battered ships, but previously it had been extremely heavy, particularly in the vicinity of Kure.

Seven Accidents Are Reported In Allegany

The Maryland Traffic Safety Commission in its monthly report to Gov. O'Connor reported 936 accidents with thirty-six persons being killed and 491 injured included one fatal accident each in Allegany and Garrett counties. There were seven accidents in Allegany county with five persons being injured. Garrett county had two accidents with one killed and one injured.

Baltimore City did not experience a change in its fatality record over June of last year. The counties, however, experienced a twenty-seven per cent increase with 28 persons being reported killed for June 1945, against 22 in June 1944. The records reveal 190 persons killed in automobile crashes during the first six months of 1945, as compared to 186 during the same period last year—a two per cent increase. The records also reveal that one person was killed in every 30 accidents for the first six months of 1945, compared to one person killed in every 34 accidents during the same period last year.

Of the 36 persons killed during the month the pedestrians was responsible for 14; next was fixed object accidents with 12; motor vehicle 5; non-collision 4, and railroad train 1. The fixed object fatal accidents with 12 persons killed during the month experienced a 140 per cent increase over June 1944, which indicates that the motorists are driving at high speeds.

Governor O'Connor, the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission, and other agencies cooperating in Traffic Safety appeal to all DRIVERS using the streets and highways in Maryland to observe the 35 mile VICTORY SPEED LIMIT. This regulation was put into effect to conserve automobiles, gasoline and tires, and by keeping this regulation it will also help to conserve—LIVES.

Oak Leaf Cluster Awarded to Kifer Posthumously

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY—Italy
—The Oak Leaf cluster has been awarded posthumously, for gallantry in action, to Staff Sgt. Virgil C. Kifer, Cumberland, Md. He served on the Fifth Army front as a member of Company "E", One Hundred Thirty-fifth Regiment, Thirty-fourth "Red Bull" division.

"By skillful use of all available cover and concealment," the citation accompanying the award read, "Sgt. Kifer brought his platoon to within 100 yards of an objective which had been holding up his battalion for three days, despite enemy fire raking the hillside. Kifer led half of his platoon in a daring rush to secure one of the buildings on the objective and then directed his men to the best positions from which to meet an expected counter-attack and returned for the remainder of his platoon."

"Kifer saw the house in which he had left the other men in, blown up by an enemy land mine and immediately rushed back up the hill but was mortally wounded by vicious fire raking the hillside. Although dying, Kifer gave instructions for the withdrawal of the surviving members of his platoon."

"Kifer's indomitable fighting spirit and courageous leadership was remembered by his fellow comrades," the citation concluded.

His father, McCallan Kifer, lives on Route 1, LaVale Boulevard, Cumberland.

Steels, Rails and Motors Lead Stock Market on Recovery Shift

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—Steels, rails, motors and assorted "blue chips" led the stock market on a general recovery shift today with gains of a point or so well distributed and a few wider jumps in evidence.

Improvement got under way at the start and the majority of favorites closed at or around the day's best. Transfers of 620,000 shares compared with 640,000 Tuesday and were the smallest since April 9.

Johns-Manville was ahead three and three-eighths and American

Can two and one-fourth. Gainers of a point or more included United States Steel, Bethlehem, Graham-Paige, Oliver Corporation, Lockheed, American Telephone, du Pont, Santa Fe, Southern Railway and Northern Pacific.

Lifted in the curb were Textron, American Republics, E. W. Bliss, Pantepec and Aluminum of America. Transactions here amounted to 210,000 shares versus 240,000 yesterday.

Secondary rails came to life in the bond market, imparting the best recovery power exhibited in several days for the market as a whole.

Trading remained sluggish on the comeback, however, sales aggregating only $5,170,000, compared with $4,890,000 on Tuesday.

United States governments were about steady.

1 OF EVERY 4 BOUGHT RIVERSIDES

Before the war, when truck tires were freely available, when truck owners still could choose the brand they wanted, 1 of every 4 of the biggest operators were big users of Riversides! Remember, these big "fleet" operators keep a mileage record on every tire. They know from their records that Riversides give more miles-per-dollar. So they buy Riversides! And more Riversides! Take a tip from these operators who know which tires stand-up best. Put Riversides on your car. You, too, will get more miles-per-dollar more protection against blow-outs, and more miles-of-safety! Today, Riversides are actually stronger than Wards pre-war tires! Stronger because Riversides' cords are stronger to begin with; then chemically-strengthened to make your tire last longer, and lessen the possibility of a blow-out!

Husband Doesn't Like Wife To Get The Better of Him

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Faustus' Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:
We've been married only a year, and were so happy at first. However, an argument will be started and when I seem to get the best of it, he doesn't like it. I try to laugh it off but that seems to make him act worse. When he walks out of the house, it makes me miserable and I wonder where he could have gone and what he's doing.

BRIDE-OF-A-YEAR.
What are these arguments about? And what starts them? When you get the best of him, why not be satisfied. It would be better not to laugh at him.

But, why argue at all? Try some other form of entertainment. It always ends up with you feeling miserable.

A good many of us aren't really grown-up, especially when our feelings are aroused. Be wise; make a success of your marriage. Realize that most of us have to learn to play all over again after marriage.

Boy Friend Is Only 15

Dear Miss Fairfax:
My father is very strict, and my mother isn't living. Will you please answer this in the paper because Father reads my mail before I do and I don't want him to know I wrote anyone about my affairs.

My problem concerns three brothers. I have gone with the two older ones and now the youngest one has stepped in. He told me he was 20 and he looks that old. But his mother says he is only 15. I'm 17. I like him more than the other two. What do you think I should do?

WORRIED.
Mothers can be trusted for knowing the correct ages of their children, and when his mother says the boy is only 15, presumably that's his right age. If you two youngsters would have a pleasant companionship, are interested in sports—tennis, golf, boating—it would probably be good for you both.

But if you're going to turn mushy, be silly, drift into love-making, it wouldn't be good for a boy of fifteen. A girl of 17 is years and years older than a boy of her own age, girls being older by development.

than boys, irrespective of birthdays. At seventeen, I think your father might begin to let you go out a little, and see boys at your own home, that is, if you're not in that lamentable state known as "boy crazy."

I BELIEVE IN GOODNESS

I believe in goodness. I believe that goodness is the best investment you can make of your body, mind and spirit. I believe that goodness has a particular potency and power.

Many other things are powerful. Money is powerful. Harm is powerful. Violence is powerful. Knowledge and shrewdness and sheer animal vitality are powerful. All these things require an investment of your time and strength, and may or may not produce a profit. But nothing, I'm convinced, brings such peace of mind, such happiness and confidence and sense of security, as goodness.

But it must be real goodness. There are many things which pass as goodness yet have no relationship to it. There's cowardice for example, which is mainly concerned with keeping out of trouble and establishing a good reputation. Such "good" people are meek and law-abiding but there is no vigor or virtue in them. They are merely concerned with their own safety and well being. They are simply animated duds.

And there are others who use righteousness as a highly convenient cover-up for their far from virtuous maneuvers. Main street is full of such slicksters.

Again, there are those who use piety for social or political betterment. Many a bank owes its liquid assets to a slick front on Sunday morning. Many a political plum was earned via the contribution plate. Religion has as many uses as a bamboo sprout.

But I've noticed that a phoney front is never lasting. A slick approach may be persuasive but it seldom is permanent. It cracks in an emergency.

But plain truth stays put. It survives any storm.

You've known such examples of honest goodness. They might not have been as exciting as the bad hombres. They might have been stupid and dull, shabby and obscure. But there was a light about them which no sham or material success could ever display—a light which would shine through the ages. And though they had no great brilliance, their roots ran deep—you could feel at home with them. They were as dependable as good bread, clean water, fresh air. God's hand still lingered and illuminated their humble clay.

So I'm betting on goodness to head the list of all human achievements. There's nothing spectacular about it, nothing exciting, nothing that money can buy or a school can teach, save the simple decency of the human soul and that mysterious potency which all other qualities lack.

Goodness will always win out in the end. And it's guaranteed to give you a peace and comfort you will find nowhere else. For all other qualities contain a risk but true goodness has no flaw. It will never fail you. It's the perfect refuge.

Company Wants To Discontinue Water Service

Says Business in Lock Lynn and Mt. Lake Park Is Not Profitable

BALTIMORE, July 25 (AP)—An application by the Mountain Lake Water Company of Garrett county to discontinue its service to Lock Lynn and Mountain Lake Park because of a continued yearly loss was taken under advisement today by the Public Service Commission.

Increased rates were offered at a hearing today as a possible solution to the situation whereby about 300 residents of the two towns are threatened with loss of a sixty-year-old service and access to any water supply whatsoever.

Mayor J. E. Enoch of Mountlake Park said the consumers would be willing to accept an approximate twelve per cent increase, since neither town was in a position to take over the company. Representatives of the firm contended that increased rates would not make up its deficits because of the large number of delinquent accounts now

James H. Donovan, Pittsburgh treasurer of the water company, said the losses have been increasing each year since 1940 as a result of increased expenditures and decreases in revenue.

company was opposed to increased rates also because they would not be justified unless improvements in the service were made and the firm was not in a position to make additional investments.

denied company allegations that the consumers had not paid their bills. "We can't do without water," he declared, adding that the townspeople would be willing to do whatever they could to retain the service.

Garrett county, appearing on behalf of the consumers, contended that the company had no right to suddenly decide to do away with the only water supply the people had. If it had been suffering such regular losses, he added, "It's a won-

Payton Cops Lead In All-American Golf Tournament
CHICAGO, July 25 (AP)—A slim, fledgling pro—136-pound George Payton, of Hampton, Va.—held the spotlight in the $60,000 All-American golf tournament today as a 126-player field was completed for the lush 72-hole open which starts tomorrow.

Payton, with a four-under-par 33-68, led 92 pros from outside Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin in a showdown for wins berths in the open, feature of a gala three-day competition among the nation's top pro, amateur and women players.

When the three-in-one carnival gets under way tomorrow, Payton—playing only his fourth tournament—will yield the stage to defending champion Byron Nelson, Le. Ben Hogan, mighty mite of the fairways, and other stars exempted from qualifying competition.

The forty qualifiers headed by Payton, who bagged five birdies and was over standard only once, joined some forty-six exempted players and forty play-for-pay lads from four surrounding states who qualified July 25 in the battle for a $13,600 (war bond) winner's purse.

In the previous elimination, Claude Harmon, of Detroit, showed the way, posting a score identical to Payton's—33-68.

Tomorrow's field also will include approximately thirty-two golfing gals shooting for the All-American women's title held by Betty Hicks, of Chicago, and twenty-seven amateurs seeking the All-American amateur title held by Ben Hogan, who defeated Ed Purgol of Detroit recently turned pro.

Payton, who bagged five birdies and was over par only once, finished two strokes ahead of four players—Clarence Doser, of Hartsville, N. Y.; Sam Schneider, of Corpus Christi, Tex.; Joe Kirkwood, trick shot star from Abington, Pa.; and Pfc. Leland Gibson, of Randolph Field, Tex.

Moon Maiden Is Winner Of $15,700 at Jamaica
JAMAICA RACE TRACK, N. Y., July 25 (AP)—Long shots fought it out and two choices brought up the rear as the $20,000 added Comely Handicap, for fillies and mares, had its inaugural running this afternoon.

Isidore Bieber's seven-year-old Moon Maiden, paying $31 for two, headed the Darby Dan Farm's Darby Delilah for the $15,700 first money. William Hill's Elpis missed the place by a half length.

Moon Maiden, whose campaign this season has run the gamut of claiming, class "D" and handicap events, added to the laurels of Hirsch Jacobs, leading trainer for eleven of the past dozen months.

The elderly, stretch-running mare's victory was witnessed by 30,397 fans, most of whom backed Surosa and Plucky Maud, a Delaware track record breaker. The latter, close up early, finished last of the ten starters and Surosa, ninth.

Tribe Loses Carnell
CLEVELAND, July 25 (AP)—Ed Carnell, Cleveland Indians' outfielder, was inducted into the navy yesterday and is now at Great Lakes, Roger Peckinpaugh, vice president of the ball club, said today.

Peckinpaugh asserted the first baseman had his induction papers transferred from Oklahoma City, Okla., and was inducted from the Cleveland center.

Busher Captures Washington Park Cleopatras Stakes

Scores by Four and a Half Lengths over Twosy; War Date Is Third

CHICAGO, July 25 (AP)—Busher, owned by Louis B. Mayer, Hollywood, Calif., coasted to a four and a half lengths victory in Arlington's $26,565 Cleopatra Stakes for three year old fillies at Washington Park today. The time for the mile was 1:37 2-5. Twosy was second and War Date third.

It was Busher's fifth victory in six starts this season.

Busher, ridden by Jockey Willie Ballen took the lead on the far stretch turn and drew away, with Twosy making the only challenge.

The winner returned $3.80, $2.80 and $2.20. The place price on Twosy was $3.80 and $3.40 show, with War Date paying $2.40 to show.

Rice Will Play In Oakland Golf
"Buddy" Rice, former Cumberland professional golfer, and now of Kingwood, W. Va., will participate in a match with three other professionals as an added attraction to the course of the Oakland Municipal Golf Club, Oakland, Md.

Efforts were made to secure Sammy Sneed, nationally known pro, to participate in the match but he was not available. The pro exhibition match will be staged tomorrow at 3:30 p. m.

The 72-hole medal play tournament will also start tomorrow at which time the first eighteen holes will be played. Saturday's 18-hole test will be followed by thirty-six holes on Sunday.

Fifteen entries from Clarksburg, Fairmont, Wheeling and Hagerstown have been received for the open tourney, according to Reaford Purbaugh, secretary of the host organization.

A trophy known as the Western Maryland Tri-State Challenge Cup will go to the winner. It must be won three times to become permanent property.

Flaherty Is Mentioned As Yanks' Grid Coach
SPOKANE, Wash., July 25 (AP)—The Chronicle said today that Ray Flaherty, former coach of the Washington Redskins professional football team would be coach of the New York Yankee team in the National Professional Football League in 1946.

Flaherty, recently discharged from the navy, had been serving as athletic officer at Paragut, Idaho, naval training and distribution center. The paper said he "is expected to go east soon to discuss plans for the 1946 campaign."

The paper said the New York Yankees will obtain a National League franchise now held by the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1946 and will enter a new All-American conference. The team will be headed by Dan Topping, now associated with the Dodgers, the paper said.

REPORT by the California Boxers' and Wrestlers' Welfare Association reveals that $620 was paid out to boxers for medical repairs and only $5 for the fighters.

The always charge more for the real thing than they do for exhibitions.

HOLD THAT TIGER!
EIGHT members of the Detroit Tigers have been on the hospital list with broken ankles, aches and pains since the season opened. Yet the Bengals are hobbling along in first place.

Which all goes to prove that if the Tigers didn't get the breaks they wouldn't be out in front.

OFF THE COB
HEAVY CHAMP JOE LOUIS shot an 80 during a recent golf tourney.

The Sarge, it appears, is putting good at this game, too.

SERVICE NOTE
U. S. COAST GUARD claims four boxing champions in uniform.

Joe Lesnevich, light-heavy king; Lou Ambros, lightweight ruler; Lew Jenkins, also a former 135-pound champion, and Jack Dempsey, the former heavyweight titleholder.

Ted Williams, ex-Red Sox socker, and Charley Gehring, ex-Detroit infielder, are playing for the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air Station team.

Hugh Luby, former Giant pitcher, is at St. Mary's Pre-Flight school.

Mickey Wittek, ex-Giant, is playing for Camp Lee, Va.

PAUL (DAFFY) DEAN, still the property of the St. Louis Browns although now in the army, recently told interviewers at Fort Riley, Kan., that he can win in the majors if they let him pitch night baseball.

He's 24, stands six-three and weighs 195 pounds. . . . Was wilder earlier in the year but he has settled down and has pitched some fine games. . . . He has won three straight. . . . He's a native of Oregon and has been in pro baseball only two years.

Pass Rule Brings Deception to Grid Game, Hagberg Say
Navy Coach Predicts That Lot of Trick Plays Will Be Used

NEW YORK, July 25 (AP)—College football this fall will specialize in deception and speed, Comdr. Oscar Hagberg, head coach of the Navy eleven said today.

"The new rules, especially the one which permits passing anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, will bring a lot of deception to the college game," he explained.

Hagberg, whose team lost three games last fall in his first year at the helm, said the rule was brought over from the pro rule book but never had been fully exploited by the pros.

"Every time a pro gets the ball he tries to throw a touchdown strike. I think the collegians will be tossing for five yards and first downs instead and that a lot of trick plays will be used," he added.

The former sub commander said it was the rule changes, plus the many speedy Navy backs, that caused him to change to the T-formation for the coming season from the single wing offense.

The Navy T will resemble the Purdue-Missouri formations with the linemen spaced, although the backfield will be arranged similar to that of the Army-Notre Dame school of thought.

"As everywhere our success will depend upon our quarterback and right now our field general is Bob Hoernschmeyer, formerly of Indiana. He's now a plebe at the academy," Hagberg said.

He believes the Navy line, minus Don Williams, will be less experienced and probably weaker than last year but that the Middle back carriers will be on a par with those of 1944.

Not only does Hagberg hope to combine the best features of the two styles now prevailing among T-formation coaches, but he hopes to add a line shift and series of power plays to his version of the offense.

BOSTON, July 25 (AP)—In as thrilling a race as has been seen at the Suffolk Downs meeting, Joe Paul's Nowadays, a three-year-old colt, won the $5,000 Suffolk race by a head.

Five lengths further back was D. and B. Stable's Hill Sun which had three-quarters of a length on Mrs. P. Kieren's Onech. Three-year-old Westwood Belle and L. C. H. Stable's Diamond Back completed the field.

Lane To Fight Henry In Baltimore Tonight
BALTIMORE, July 25 (AP)—A crack at Elmer (Violent) Ray, top heavyweight contender, is the year held out to the winner of the ten-round bout tomorrow night between Yancy Henry and Larry Lane at Baltimore's Bolton street armory.

Henry, whose contract recently was purchased by Baltimore fight manager Sam Lane, was to have fought Melio Bettina, but twice the New Yorker asked for postponement. Lane, of New York, then was signed to fight Henry.

The matter of Bettina's postponements was turned over to the state boxing commission by the Armed Athletic Club and the latter body has asked the fighter and his manager for an explanation.

Basora and LaMotta To Clash August 10
NEW YORK, July 25 (AP)—Jake Lamotta, New York middleweight, will meet Joe Basora, of Puerto Rico in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden August 10, Promoter Mike Jacobs announced today.

The veteran Ryder cup star, two-times British open champion, was defeated one up by Reginald Knight, 28-year-old vacationing factory engineer, in the fourth round of the $8,000 National P. G. A. tournament.

Knight formerly was caddy for Cotton and later his assistant at a London Country Club.

"As his old boss, I gave him too much encouragement," Cotton said after the match.

Ruffing, Laabs, Lewis To Rejoin Flag Contenders

Return of Ostermueller Will Be Greeted by Pittsburgh

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK, July 25 (AP)—Imminent return to the lineups of Washington's Buddy Lewis, New York's Red Ruffing and St. Louis's Chet Laabs promised today to alter the course of the tightened American League pennant chase.

With all clubs of both majors enjoining an open date, the Junior league standings show only a seven-game spread from Cleveland in seventh place to Detroit on top of the heap. Return to form of any one of the trio of ex-stars could make the difference between a world series cut and an also ran finish.

Detroit, bolstered by the return of Hank Greenberg and Al Benton, still holds first position but the Tigers missed a golden opportunity to pile up a commanding lead when they floundered through the East winning only four of twelve starts.

Washington, one of the major surprises of the season, stuck in the runnerup spot although the Senators failed to play 500 ball at home. However, the Nats are only three lengths back of the Bengals.

With Lewis, a recently discharged captain in the army air force with distinguished service in the CBA theater, due to step back into the Washington infield, the Senators will command more respect. Addition of Lewis, who had a .304 lifetime batting average before he entered the army in November, 1941, should add power.

Ruffing at 40 hardly figures to duplicate his old feats with the Yankees after two and a half years in the army. However, Acting Manager Fletcher has nominated him to pitch tomorrow's game against Philadelphia and more will be known then.

Laabs hardly rates with Lewis and Ruffing as stars of yesteryear but his home run slugging in the final days of the 1944 campaign was one big reason for the Browns' success. The St. Louis outfielder hit twenty-seven round trippers in 1943 but only five last year. However, two of them came on the final day of the season to clinch the pennant.

The National league also greets a returning veteran who can make or break Pittsburgh's hopes. He is Fritz Ostermueller, inducted ten days after the opening of the current season but discharged yesterday. The left-hander won 17 for the Dodgers and Pirates in 1944 and the Buccos in fourth place, seven and one-half games back of Chicago, still rate a chance.

The Curtis Bay Cutters, meantime, piled up eleven blows against two Bainbridge hurlers and counted their pair of runs in the second inning. Oscar Johnson and Marty Taback drove the tallies across.

The score: CURTIS BAY.....020 000 000-2 11 1

Drastic Change in Rules

Uncle Sam Calls Edens
Naughton Seeks Prexy
Is Long a Candidate?
By C. V. BURNS

The most drastic change in the 1945 football rules, if uniformly and fully enforced, is the revision of Rule 10, Section 1, Article 2, which deals with the use of hands by the offensive team, is the viewpoint of Paul Menton, sports editor of the Baltimore Evening Sun.

"It has the line coaches, in particular, and some of the head coaches worried regarding the strictness with which it will be enforced," Menton writes.

"It states that 'when players of the team in possession of the ball use their hands or arms in blocking, the hand or hands must be in contact with the body.'"

"That's all there is to it, but there hasn't been one team in ten, including high school eleven of the last few years, whose players have kept their hands in contact with the body" when blocking. The arm, particularly the forearm, has been used more and more as a battering ram on opponents' chin, neck, head and body. It is the real growing evil of roughhouse football, but can be completely curbed by a return to the strict interpretation of the written words in the code.

"No physical damage can be done to an opponent when a blocker's hands are in contact with his own body. But many a player is going to really learn how to block for the first time."

"This point probably will cause much discussion at the football clinics for officials and coaches this fall. It is of paramount importance that the rules committee be specific in stating how strictly the rule be enforced so that all sections have the same interpretation."

Edens, who trained at Fairgo, prior to the opening of the Charles Town racing season, has been notified that he will be inducted into the army on July 30.

Harold E. Naughton, well known local attorney and trial magistrate, who is vice president of the Mid-Geet League, is on a talent hunt hoping to find a president for that circuit following the resignation of Gordon Alexander.

League managers will meet at the YMCA tomorrow evening at which time it is hoped that "Shorty" will unveil a new prexy.

Naughton starred in basketball and track at LaSalle in his high school days. He was a "midget" in size but he proved to be one of the best long distance runners around town and on the court, he often got into opposition's hair by sinking shots from past mid-floor.

When "Shorty" was in his freshman year at the University of Maryland the basketball coach sent him into the game as a substitute and the first crack out of the box the Cumberland lad heaved one through the cords from long distance.

Upon his return to the bench the coach asked: "Who do you think you are, Nat Holman?" and Naughton is reported to have replied: "No kiddin' coach, did I look that good?"

According to curbside gossip Johnny Long is reported to be interested in the football coaching job at LaSalle this fall.

If coaching experience means anything Johnny has it.

After being graduated from Catholic university, where he played football and basketball, he served as athletic coach at Newman Prep school, Lakewood, N. J., St. Peter's high school, New Brunswick, N. J.; LaSalle, Fort Hill and Bulls school, Washington, D. C. Have we missed any, Johnny?

Long is a graduate of Allegheny county high school. That was the county high school on Greene street, which was destroyed by fire. Johnny, however, came to Allegheny from old LaSalle Institute, which in those days was located on Fayette street.

What's this we hear about Bill Keegan going to be a candidate for city council next year?

Can you picture Commissioner Keegan wearing boots and sporting a ten-gallon hat while riding his nag Big Talk at council meetings on Monday mornings?

The local sportsman advises his friends that he is building his fences now, adding that the Valley street bridge will come later.

North End citizens are wondering if Keegan's becoming a candidate will affect his amateur standing as mayor of North Mehanic street above the viaduct.

Babe Ruth Wants Chance To Manage New York Yanks

Feels He's Entitled to at Least One Chance To Pilot Major Team

PATERSON, N. J., July 25 (AP)—Babe Ruth was quoted tonight by Joe Gootter, sports editor of the Paterson Evening News as saying if there was any change contemplated in the management of the New York Yankees, he was interested in the job.

In an interview at the Paterson News-Patrolmen's Benevolent Association diamond gloves championships where the Babe was guest-starring, Gootter said he put the question to the former Yankee star and was told:

"I definitely would be interested in managing the Yankees if there were any changes made. I've always had a

William Cassell Represents Army School for Blind

Local Soldier Studied Special Courses in Connecticut Hospital

Cpl. William E. Cassell, 70 Brown street, formerly with the Eleventh fighter squadron, army air forces, has received his discharge from the army at Old Farms convalescent hospital, Avon, Conn., and returned to Cumberland, according to a release.

Cpl. Cassell will be a local representative of the army's training program for blinded veterans which is carried on at Old Farms, and which is designed to return to the local community fully competent to resume his normal, social and business life among his neighbors.

Cpl. Cassell, who was inducted on October, 1942, took his basic training at Bowman field, Ky., and went overseas in March, 1943. He served in the Aleutians. He holds the Asiatic-Pacific service ribbon with one battle star. Prior to his entering the service, Cpl. Cassell was a machinist's helper with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and was a graduate of the Port Hill high school in 1942.

The courses offered at Old Farms, and which Cpl. Cassell completed with credit to himself are designed to return to the veteran his self-confidence in his ability to support himself and to pick up the scattered threads of his civilian existence.

Rather than training aimed at providing him with a suitable occupation, as has been done so often in the past, the army's program is designed to find out what the individual man wants to do and to attempt to give him training in the proper methods of going about the work he has picked with the handicaps under which he suffers.

Some forty-five courses are offered every line of activity, and, in addition, practical experience comes in Hartford war plants and offices. Also, an effort is made to interest a blinded soldier in spare time hobbies which will give him the same opportunity as the sighted man for productive work in his home, according to the release.

The installation of the blind as accomplished at Avon is also designed to restore his confidence in his own abilities. While on the grounds of the hospital, the blinded veteran moves about without canes or artificial aids of any kind. They go where they want to go, when they want to go, and in their own way. They are given extensive training in travel technique for the blind and are, as a result, competent to handle themselves in almost any situation which may arise.

They are also given extensive training in sports and find that golfing, fishing, bowling, horse-back riding and other similar sports still offer thrills and enjoyment. Their recreational activity include dances, dinners, moving pictures, athletic events and all of the other activities which interested them for so long.

The sum total of this training is that the blinded veteran returns home fully competent to take care of himself and needs only the opportunity to do so.

Operates Machinery
Cpl. Cassell specialized while at Old Farms in industrial skills, including the operation of many forms of factory machinery. He also took courses in journalism and was production manager of the "Quadrant," the post newspaper published by the blinded veterans. One of his leading hobbies was leather work.

Citizens of Cumberland will have the opportunity to prove the army's theories that the training of war-blinded soldiers can be accomplished through intelligent understanding of the problems by their home communities.

If these blinded soldiers are permitted to work and play on the basis of their ability, without favor and without handicap, if knowing their own abilities, they are given the opportunity to prove them to prospective employers, this war will produce no unadjusted blind, the release stated.

Negotiations Begin Toward Settlement Of Steel Walkout

Attempts were made last evening by union and federal authorities to lay plans for a satisfactory settlement of the dispute which closed the Cumberland Steel Company plant here early Monday morning after the sixty odd workers walked out in protest to the dismissal of a veteran employee.

Members of the International Association of Machinists Lodge No. 489, A.F.L. will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Allegany Trades Council hall to hear a report of new developments in the work stoppage. Raymond May, corresponding secretary of the union, disclosed last evening.

A. J. Skundor, Pittsburgh, I.A.M. grand lodge representative, who arrived here yesterday morning accompanied by Richard W. Goodrich, commissioner of conciliation of the department of labor, met with the grievance committee of the lodge from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. The facts of the case, May said, were discussed at the conference.

Skundor said he will meet today with the conciliator to discuss progress. Attempts are being made, the I.A.M. official said, to arrange a conference between the company, union and the federal conciliator.

Goodrich disclosed last evening that he had made contact with George R. Hughes, attorney for the company.

The walk out was precipitated by the dismissal of May, a veteran of twenty years with the company, after the local man remained away from work last Thursday and Friday following a layoff of production men Tuesday and Wednesday.

Objections May Prevent Merger Of Coal Firms

PITTSBURGH, July 25 (P)—Stockholders of the Pittsburgh Coal Company approved today a plan to merge it with the Consolidation Coal Company—the new firm to be the world's largest commercial soft coal producer—but there were so many stockholders' objections it was doubtful whether the merger would go through.

After the vote was announced as 485,434 shares in favor and 103,842 against, Pittsburgh Coal Chairman Augustus K. Oliver told newsmen: "So many objections have been filed it is doubtful whether we can do anything about it. There is a limit to how much money the company can put out."

Protests Will Be Checked
He referred to the sum required to redeem the shares of opposition stockholders who would demand payment for their stock if the merger should proceed.

"I don't know how many objections there are," said Oliver. "They will have to be checked, and this will take some time."

Consolidation stockholders approved the proposal at a meeting in New York yesterday.

The proposal would create a new firm known as the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company, with combined assets of about $160,000,000. With thirty-four mines in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, it would have an annual output of some 25,000,000 tons.

The most outspoken opponent, G. E. Burke, a Youngstown, O., coal dealer owning 100 preferred shares, said at the Pittsburgh Coal stockholders' meeting he felt his stock was "safe" because of the company's "wonderful mines, lands, and being right in the market."

Conflicting Views
"All our interests are best served by continuing the company as it is," he continued.

"Consolidation is unmechanized and made no money until the war. It will dilute and destroy the value of the stockholders' equity in Pittsburgh Coal. I can't understand why our directors favor it."

The management's view, as expressed in its proxy statement, was that under the merger the combined properties can be operated more advantageously and the coal produced therefrom can be more economically distributed.

"The plan should contribute materially to meeting the problems and challenges facing the constituent corporations in the postwar years," the statement said.

Textile Workers To Hold Bathing Beauty Contest

A bathing beauty contest, open to members of Local 1374, Textile Workers Union of America, will be a special feature of the local's annual Labor Day celebration, Playford Aldridge, chairman of the contest, announced yesterday afternoon.

At least three prizes will be awarded, Aldridge said, but details of the awards have not yet been arranged.

The contest will be similar, the TWUA recording secretary said, to the beauty contest held last year at Constitution park when prizes of $200, $100 and $50 were presented in addition to smaller prizes donated by local merchants.

Names of members who wish to enter the contest may be submitted at once at Textile hall, Aldridge said, and added that membership in the local is the only qualification needed.

Last year's contest, held at the swimming pool of Constitution park proved one of the triumphs of the all-day affair, the union official added.

Mrs. Mary Grady is assisting Aldridge with plans for the event.

FOOD SURVEY SHOWS GOOD COMPLIANCE WITH OPA RULES

Evidence that virtually all of Allegany county's grocery stores are complying with OPA regulations is seen in the July food store survey completed yesterday. Of the 210 stores checked, all but seven were found to be in full compliance, attaches of the War Price and Rationing Board No. 231.1 disclosed yesterday.

The survey conducted by personnel of the board indicates that 191 of the county's 223 grocery stores were checked. Fifteen price violations and ten posting violations were found.

In all cases where items were marked in excess of ceiling prices, immediate corrections were made by the grocers, attaches added.

All of the fifteen price violations were found in Group 1 and 2 stores, and nine of the cases resulted from prices on groceries. Three meat price and three miscellaneous violations were discovered among the 1,027 specific items checked.

Group 3 stores, which sell $50,000 or more in goods yearly and Group 4 stores, which gross $250,000 or more were given a clean slate in the survey.

Carload of Trucks Arrives Here; First Since 1942

The first carload shipment of new trucks to arrive in Cumberland since Pearl Harbor were received yesterday by the Western Maryland Railway for dealers in this area.

Four trucks arrived from the Studebaker Corporation in South Bend, Indiana, and they drew a crowd at the Western Maryland Railway yard where they were unloaded.

Four Western Maryland area dealers got the trucks, one to each dealer, and while it represented slim pickings compared to the number of trucks dealers would like to have delivered, the arrival did reassure many that the manufacture of trucks and cars for civilian use is beginning to pick up.

"The plant gave us more assurance yesterday about future production than we've had yet," C. L. Collins, of Collins Garage, 125 South Mechanic street, said.

Collins was the one Cumberland dealer to get a truck from the shipment. The other three went to dealers in Hagerstown, Parsons and Capon Ridge.

Interested spectators who gave the new truck in Collins garage the once over observed that the new Studebaker one ton job is identical with the old model except that it is built much heavier throughout. The new truck is in green and black with a heavy cab with a new windshield supported by a heavier outside strap hinge than formerly. It has a nine foot stake body.

Collins doubted if the construction of heavy duty army trucks in the past few years had anything to do with the increased weight of the new truck built for civilian use.

"They keep building them heavier every year," he said, "and its been that way for some time now."

The one ton model costs approximately twenty per cent more than in 1942, Collins said, and will sell for $1,400 which includes everything. "I knew it was coming but I didn't say anything about it because I didn't know when," Collins said. "They gave us quite a lot of assurance that there would be more soon. I expect ten other units between now and the first of the year."

Trained Teachers Deserve Higher Pay, Raver Says

Sneaks at Institute Held at Frostburg State Teachers College

The public must know what kind of teachers are needed in schools and colleges and must be willing to pay enough to get them, Milton Raver, executive secretary of the Maryland State Teachers Association, said yesterday.

Raver was one of the principal speakers at an institute conducted yesterday at Frostburg State Teachers college on the theme "Education: An Investment in People—Our Responsibility." Morning and afternoon sessions were held in the college auditorium. Approximately 125 persons, including the student body members of the faculty, and parents and teachers from Allegany, Garrett and Washington counties were present.

Raver pointed out that teachers should realize their responsibility in educating boys and girls who are future American citizens, stating that teachers should have confidence in their own ability to meet the challenge which their profession presents to them.

Discusses Tax Rate
A discussion of the need of an increased tax rate to provide more adequate salaries for teachers was presented by Dr. Earle Hawkins, state high school supervisor, who spoke on the topic "Evaluating Our Schools."

Dr. Hawkins said that it is up to the taxpayers to see the need for public education and to provide the funds with which to secure it.

Several speakers took part in a panel discussion led by Charles L. Kopp, county superintendent of schools, on the subject of public and professional relationships.

Thomas D. Martin, a representative of the National Educational Association, discussed the improvement in educational standards in Maryland following the adoption of the twelve-year plan in schools throughout the state and increased salaries for teachers.

Clarence Lippel, Cumberland attorney who was another panel speaker, said that what the public expects of teachers is training not only in the fundamentals of learning but also in the "intangibles" of tolerance, character, and a democratic way of living.

Cumberland Teacher Speaks
Mrs. Edith McManis, Frostburg, a graduate of the college and a teacher in Mount Royal Avenue school here, pointed out that teachers expect parents to send only healthy children to school, since it is difficult to teach children who are undernourished or in general poor physical condition.

Benjamin C. Willis, superintendent of schools in Washington county, who discussed the subject of the superintendent's expectations of teachers, declared that superintendents want well-trained teachers who are willing to continue their studies in order to improve their teaching ability. Willis also stressed the need for higher teachers' salaries.

Mrs. Mary Soverby, instructor of English at Port Hill high school, said that teachers expect understanding and confidence from the superintendents with whom they work.

Miss Lillian C. Compton, acting president of the college, presided at the morning and afternoon sessions, and introduced the speakers. The morning session opened at 10 o'clock and continued until noon, when a luncheon was served in the dining room of the residence hall. The institute reconvened at 1:30 for the afternoon session, which ended at 3 o'clock.

Finances of City Have Improved, Audit Indicates

According to the 1944-45 financial report for the city filed yesterday by Charles O. Hall, Baltimore accountant, current borrowings last March totaled only $33,800, a decline of 76.84 per cent from the 1939 total of $405,000.

Uncollected taxes, water rents and liens have dropped 64.96 per cent from March 31, 1939. In the 1939 fiscal year they totaled $523,647.20; in 1944 they were $183,240.08; and in 1945 they amounted to $163,977.67. As compared to 1944, uncollected taxes have decreased 23.3 per cent, water rents 2.8 per cent, and liens 12.3 per cent.

Recommendations Made
The report recommended that sufficient deposits be placed in the sinking fund to make up for the loss of earnings, that the collection of liens be enforced, and that funds from which expenditures for the airport have been made be analyzed "so that the proper investment in that project can be shown on the books."

Discussing the recommendation regarding the sinking fund, Arthur B. Gibson, city auditor, said that profit of $233,383.10 was made by the fund trustees in the 1943-44 fiscal year by the sale of securities, and that this profit would more than offset the low earnings of the fund for the next ten years. The fund is designed to earn four per cent, while the current earnings are approximately two and one-half per cent.

The sinking fund earned $38,218.43 in interest in the past year and $930 in premiums. Fund holdings total $1,639,379.18, with $819,437.95 being credited to general and $819,921.23 to water bonds.

The par value of bonds held by the fund is $1,609,600. With the exception of one $2,000 City of Cambridge bond all of the holdings are federal securities.

Pension Funds Increase
Both the Police and Fire department pension funds show considerable increases since June 1, 1943, when legislation increasing the contributions from the city and the departments to the fund went into effect.

Receipts for the police pension fund during the fiscal year 1944-45 were $6,538.20, as against $2,490 in pension payments. The cash balance March 31 of this year was $12,282.60, since a cash balance of $12,282.60 at the beginning of the 1944 fiscal year was $8,234.16.

Fire department pension receipts amounted to $5,079.66, with pension payments of $2,826.20 and medical and hospital expenditures amounting to $205. The cash balance at the beginning of the current fiscal year was $6,965.74, which is in addition to $7,512.50 in United States defense bonds. The opening cash balance of the 1944 fiscal year was $4,917.28.

Gibson said that the present contribution by personnel of both departments to the pension fund is three per cent of the base wage, while the city contributes five per cent of the base wage to firemen and seven per cent to the police fund.

Of the $2,500 appropriated for accident last year, only $401 was expended, the report stated, indicating that only minor injuries were suffered by city employees to whom compensation insurance was paid.

In 1943-44 a total of $1,050.08 was expended for accident payments; in 1942-43 the amount was $1,923.20; and in 1941-42 payments amounted to $2,644.02.

Bonded Indebtedness Drops
Bonded indebtedness dropped $68,000 to $2,813,000 in the general account. Water bonds remain at $2,705,000 making total outstanding bonds $5,518,000. The value of property over bonds is $6,475,566.24.

The Water Department had a gross income of $379,901.90 and expenditures of $268,920.28 to make a net income of $110,981.62 for the year. Water surplus is listed at $252,655.89.

Commissioner William J. Edwards pointed out that some of the surplus fund will be used to build the large main in Decatur street. The line will become part of the proposed new main from Lake Gordon to the city.

The operating account for last year showed excess revenue over expectations of $10,378.81. Unexpended appropriations totaled $26,355.54 to make a surplus of $36,734.35.

Total assets of the city are listed at $14,212,227. The general property account dropped $2,113.60 to $7,092,556.16 due to the sale of some lots.

Cumberland Gets High Percentage In Milk Survey

Cumberland has been given a rating of 91.22 per cent on the pasteurized milk supply and a rating of 89.45 for pasteurized milk plants following a survey by the United States Public Health Service, according to Mayor Thomas S. Post, president of the board of health.

Maj. M. M. Miller of the federal public health services headed the group which checked the local plants during the survey in June. Accompanying Mayor Post's announcement was a letter from the public health service to Dr. Winter R. Frantz, city health officer, in which the city health department was complimented on the splendid record made here.

Daily Consumption
Maj. Miller's report showed that daily consumption of milk in Cumberland averages more than 1.16 pints per person, placing the city as one of the highest milk-consuming cities east of the Mississippi river.

Mayor Post pointed out that the survey system was put into operation here three years ago to place Cumberland among cities which could achieve a rating of at least ninety per cent on the federal agency's records. Dr. Frantz said that no milk can be sold in Cumberland unless it is Grade A.

A total of 8,524 gallons of pasteurized milk and 230 gallons of raw milk are consumed each day in Cumberland. The report indicated the following percentages scored by the milk producers in this area on the basis of U. S. Public Health Service ratings:

Raw milk sold to plants, 93 per cent; retail raw milk sold, 90.86 per cent; pasteurized milk rating, 91.22 per cent, and enforcement methods rating, 95.30 per cent.

Enforcement Cited
The enforcement percentage was cited by Mayor Miller as being one of the best he has ever noted during surveys in various cities. The survey covered four raw milk dairies, 210 plant producers and six pasteurizing plants in Cumberland and immediate vicinity.

A check of survey figures shows that milk and milk products sold in Cumberland by local dairies, plants and processors to about $750,000 annually, and that the value of dairy farms totalled approximately five million dollars with another million in plants, equipment and real estate.

Aiding in the survey were Mayor Post, Mayor Miller, Dr. Frantz, J. Byron Dowling, state sanitarian of the Bureau of Foods and Drugs; W. Arnold Gunther, state bacteriologist; A. L. Sullivan, state commissioner of the Bureau of Foods and Drugs, and W. Harvey Schooley, city milk inspector.
